Please complete this mid-point evaluation form in accordance with merit award regulations:

Masters-level students must work 10 hours per week for 15 weeks per semester (Fall and/or Spring terms) for a total of 150 hours each semester to retain the Graduate Assistantship merit award funding. Doctoral-level students must work 20 hours per week for 15 weeks per semester (Fall and Spring terms) for a total of 300 hours each semester to retain the PhD Graduate/Teaching Assistantship award.

Graduate Assistants (GAs) supervised by faculty must complete mid-point and final evaluations each term in part as a record of hours worked and performance. Adjustments to the weekly hourly requirement per week can be made by agreement between the supervisor and graduate student.

In addition, each student must perform satisfactory progress as evidenced by a score of 3 or above in each area.

The following mid-point evaluation form requires a signature by both the student and supervisor before returning to the Graduate Academic Services office via email at gradcomm@american.edu on the 8th week of each semester worked.

Acknowledgement of Hours Worked

It is the responsibility of the student to log their hours and review the evaluation with the assistantship supervisor. Please record the number of hours worked for each week below. The total number of hours should average 10 per week for Masters students and 20 per week for PhD students.
