NOTE: The American University-Pulitzer Center Campus Consortium partnership

offers one International Reporting Fellowship in 2019. It is worth $3,000.

1) List your anticipated travel dates and proposed reporting location/itinerary.

2) Provide a preliminary TOTAL budget estimate:

Using the lines below, include a breakdown of the total budget estimate from above.

For example, AIRFARE: $600

| | | | |
|-------|---|----|-------|
| _____ | : | $ | _____ |
| _____ | : | $ | _____ |
| _____ | : | $ | _____ |
| _____ | : | $ | _____ |
| _____ | : | $ | _____ |
| _____ | : | $ | _____ |

Total:

Remember: The fellowship offered is for $3,000. If your budget is over that amount, please specify the source of the additional funds.

3) Provide a short description of your proposed project in the space below or on a separate sheet of paper (250 words or less).

Supplemental descriptive information may also be submitted, but the 250-summary is key.

4) Include your resume and 2-3 recent samples of your work. Please include links to your video samples.

5) It would greatly assist us if applicants submit a list of any other plausible distribution avenues, aside from the Pulitzer Center, they are considering for their reporting.

6) One letter of recommendation. This letter may be submitted by one of the three persons you've listed above as a reference. The letter should explain the recommender's relationship with you (for example professor, advisor); it should address your skills and your ability to complete the project you've proposed.

Students must submit electronic applications AND hard-copy applications to Professor Bill Gentile no later than midnight of Sunday 31 March 2019. Late submissions will not be accepted.

Please send electronic applications to billgentile@billgentile.com.

Please submit hard copy applications in a large, self-addressed manila envelope, to:
